

HEADQUARTERS 104TH (TIMBERWOLF) INFANTRY DIVISION
Office of the Commanding General

24 May 1945

TO ALL TIMBERWOLVES:

The esteem in which our Timberwolf Division is held at home is indicated by the following extract from a letter just received from the Under Secretary of War:

"Major General Terry de la M. Allen,
Commanding General,
104th Infantry Division.

Dear General:

It was a great pleasure...to visit the 104th Division
in Germany.

The Timberwolf Division has made a great record. The American people are proud of it and I know that you are proud of it.

With best regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

(Sgd.) Robert P. Patterson
HEADQUARTERS 104TH (TIMBERWOLF) INFANTRY DIVISION
Office of the Commanding General
Robert P. Patterson,
Under Secretary of War."

This commendation from the Under Secretary of War, who was a combat infantry officer with a distinguished record in World War I, is a deserving tribute to your battle accomplishments. The recognized combat record of the division imposes an obligation to maintain our established standards of discipline, training and physical fitness. The Timberwolf Division must always maintain its intensive belief in itself and its aggressive combat spirit. The esteem in which our Timberwolf Division is held at home is indicated by the following extract from a letter just received from the Under Secretary of War:

Again, my sincere thanks to you all for your loyal support and for having lived up to your battle slogan:

Commanding General,
104th "NOTHING IN HELL MUST STOP THE TIMBERWOLVES."

Dear General:

It was a great pleasure...to visit the 104th Division
in Germany.

Terry Allen
TERRY ALLEN

The Timberwolf Division has made a great record. The American people are proud of it and I know that you are proud of it.

With best regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,
